BIOGRAPHIES

Brook has managed the Southeast Asian Fund since its inception in 2011 and came to Waverton upon the acquisition of 2CG Senhouse which he co-founded in 2010. Prior to this he co-managed the Ton Poh Emerging Thailand Fund at Ton Poh Capital which he had co-founded in 2004. Brook was at Cazenove & Co between 1984 and 2002 leading both the Emerging Markets Desk and the North American Desk during his time there. He has an Economics degree from Queen Mary College, University of London (1984) and a Masters in Asian History from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London (2004).

Richard joined Waverton in September 2018 as Head of Asian Equity Research. He is based in the Bangkok research office and works closely with Brook Tellwright and Will Hanbury on the Southeast Asian and Asia Pacific long only equity investment strategies. Prior to joining Richard was Head Of Asian Equities in Singapore for Maybank Kim Eng (2005-2018), during which time he collaborated strongly with Waverton identifying interesting opportunities across Asia. Richard was Head of Asian Equity Sales for Nomura, HSBC Swiss Bank and Barings Securities between 1989-2005. The first decade of his career was spent as a Global Bond and Equity fund manager for Den Norske Creditbank (1986-1989) and as a Japanese Warrant Trader for Hoare Govett (1981-1985). Richard read Economics at Bath University in 1980, holds four London Stock Exchange exams and has Modules 1A and 6A from the Institute of Banking and Finance Singapore.

Hoon joined Waverton in June 2017 as an analyst for the Waverton Southeast Asian Fund. Previously he worked in the Business Development department of Thailand's state-owned energy corporation, PTT Public Company Limited. Hoon graduated from Imperial College, London with a Masters in Chemical Engineering (MEng) in 2014. He is currently studying for a Masters in Financial Investment and Risk Management (MSc) at the National Institute of Development Administration of Thailand, and his CFA examinations.
